Carmen Rinaldi. Headmaster, in conference

HEADMASTER AND

Dear Friends,

Four years to be spent anywhere seem an eternity; but in retrospect the Brookline High School setting, although not something we would call the loveliest in the world, has I hope provided occasional if not frequent moments of excitement and happiness. A prominent writer in a letter to a friend said, "I come out of this new experience with the strengthened conviction that we can do nothing better in life than to take and follow the threads it offers us, step by step, towards something we do not see, but which must be there ahead, as surely as the World exists ..."

I write to you as friends and hope that you will "follow the threads" of your "new experience," whatever and wherever it may be.

Sincerely yours.

The man who follows the crowd will usually get no further than the crowd. The man who walks alone is likely to find himself in places no one has ever seen before.

Creativity in living is not without its attendant difficulties, for peculiarity breeds contempt. And the unfortunate thing about being ahead of your time is that when people finally realize you were right, they'll say it was obvious all along.

You have two choices in life: you can dissolve into the mainstream, or you can be distinct. To be distinct, you must be different. To be different, you must strive to be what no one else but you can be . . .

GIRLS SWIMMING

This years Varsity Girls Swim team ended the season with an impressive 9-1 record, and won the Suburban League meet. There were two senior captains, Ann Harrington, and Heather Maxon who hold the school records for the 6 and 11 feet dives.

Coached by Joanne D'Amigello and Jim Locke the team also has two outstanding sophomores. Cindy Clifford holds seven school records and is all American in breast stroke, and Liz Von Huene holds the school record for the fifty yard free style. With these girls returning, next year should be as rewarding as this past year.

The Volleyball team had a very surprising season this year with a record of 13-3. Coach Crane said, "I expected it to be a rebuilding year, but it turned out to be a winning one!" The team placed 2nd behind Brockton in the Subur-

which was their captain, Sue MacGillivray. ton was undefeated until they met up with Brookline. All the girls on the team worked together to give all their opponents a good game. The team for next year should be just as good as they will be losing only two players one of which was their captain, Sue MacGillivray.

With expectations of going to the Eastern Mass. Tourney, the soccer team ended the "74" season with an 8-9-1 record.

Although the team didn't make the tourney, Coach Conroy was pleased with the team and especially pleased with the work of 8 individuals. Co-captain David Berkman was phenomenal scoring the most goals for the team and also making the 1st All Star team. Jimmy Muse and Peleg Gal also had excellent seasons and both made the 2nd All Star Team. Joey McNeilly, Rookie Dietrich Blummer, and Co-captain Phil Herman had fine seasons. Also sophomore sensation Henry Mosquera and junior firebomb Dan Finn helped the team to their 8 victories.

Next season is going to be a difficult one as only 4 varsity men will be returning to take the place of 16 seniors who will be leaving this year.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Brookline High enjoyed the fortunes of a successful season. Led by tri-captains Brian Cloherty, Louis DeSantis and Dyke Hoy, the team achieved a record of 6 wins and 4 losses. The season ended happily as Brookline drove traditional Thanksgiving Day rival Newton down to defeat, 13-7. Seniors Richard Kirby, Kevin Burke, Tim Lally and Jeff Horblitt also played important parts in the team's six victories. Outstanding juniors consisted of Paul Piatelli, Fred Greene, Bob Clark, Bob Mahon and Joe Galasti, all of whom will be returning next year for a very hopeful season. And last of all, sensational sophomore, Steve Ewanouski, made the offense go with his superb quarterbacking. Steve has two strong years ahead of him. The team next year has many returning lettermen, and the coaches, along with the rest of the student body, have faith in that the team will have a very successful season.

The Cross Country team, headed by coach Norman Laasko, ended the "74" season with a 3-6 record. Fine performances by captain Steven Hunt along with Chris Browne and Robert Siegal led the team to its 3 victories. The team would have probably had a better record if early injuries to Mike McNally, Tony Page, and Brian McMahon were avoided. The team performed with excellence, upsetting Rindge Tech and beating Cambridge Latin and Quincy.

Captain Hunt qualified for the All State meet, and placed 8th overall. Joy Koch, the first female to ever play on a male BHS team placed 6th in the girls state meet. She also helped the team immensely during the regular season.

The losses of captain Hunt, R. Siegal, and M. McNally will hurt the team but returning Lettermen and future co-captains Tony Page and Chris Browne, should fill their shoes.

CROSS COUNTRY.

The girls field hockey team had a fantastic season with a record of 5-1-2. Brookline had the most shutouts in the league; only one shot went past goalie Ellen McCarthy the entire season.

The team went all the way to the State Tournament when they played Hingham and lost by a close 2-1 score. They did exceedingly well considering that Hingham was heavily favored and was reported to have more talent than Brookline.

One of the best games was against Newton, the defending champs, which ended in a scoreless tie. Brookline then tied Cambridge which caused the team to miss first place by only one point to Newton.

Some of the players who showed outstanding skill and leadership were captains Nora McLoughlin and Marcia Fowler. Phyllis Whitcomb and Luanne MacAulay also contributed greatly to the team. Sophomores Kim Harris and Susan Perry proved their talent and will be a great asset to the team in coming years.

Coach Linda Roberts proudly exclaimed that the team played together both mentally and physically which is why the team had such a successful season.

BASKETBALL

This season has been one of the most successful in the history of the B.H.S. basketball team. With All-Star center and Captain Mark Young leading the team to victory they compiled an impressive winning record. Supported by ten hustling students, eight of whom are seniors, the Great White Machine has proven that team work can bring results. The precision of the team can be accredited to their super coach, Don Slaven, without whose support the Knights would not be Suburban League Champions.

VARSITY

The Brookline High hockey team, led by Captains Joe McNeilly and Ken Bauer, had a rather disappointing season. Due to many injuries, at the beginning of the season the team's record did not reflect its ability. The team had a lot of talent but the competition was sometimes too tough. This year the team consisted of many underclassmen with a great deal of potential. Coach DiVincenzo feels that next year's season looks very promising.

WRESTLING

The wrestling team ended the season with a record of 3 and 10. It was a pretty hard year for the team. Over all, they were an inexperienced team and with the loss of last years Co-captain, the season was not made any easier.

There were a few key people on the team. They were sophomore Sean Griffin at 100 lbs, who had a great record of 8 and 4, Co-Captain Jimmy Griffin at 134 lbs, 10 and 3, Junior Ed Roberts at 140 lbs, record of 8-2-1. Dietrich Blumer, senior, with a record of 7-2. Peleg Gal was a pleasant surprise. Peleg at 187 lbs proved very good with a 2 and 1 record.

The best match was probably against Newton North. Although Brookline lost it was a good match. Unfortunately Brookline had to forfeit two weight classes. The team finished the year with a 30 to 19 win over Concord.

Don't let the sun go down on me
 Although I search myself, it's always someone else I see
 I'd just allow a fragment of your life to wander free
 But losing everything is like the sun going down on me.

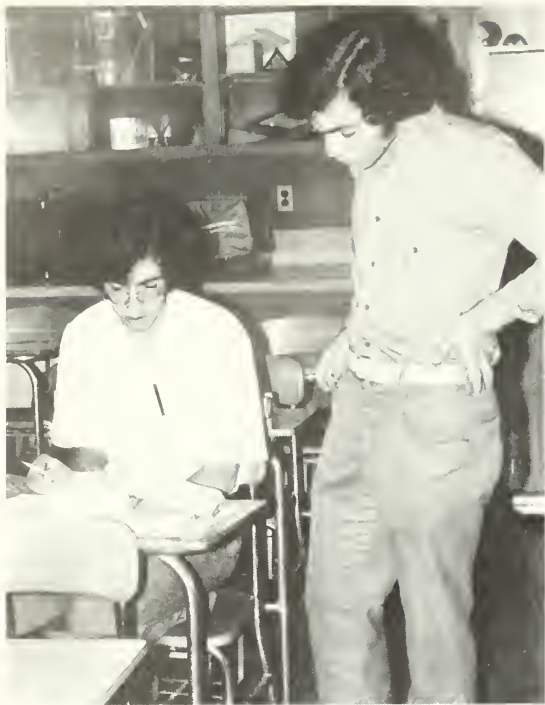

Elton John

Everybody's got a thing
But some don't know how to handle it
Always reaching out in vain
Accepting the things not worth having.

Stevie Wonder

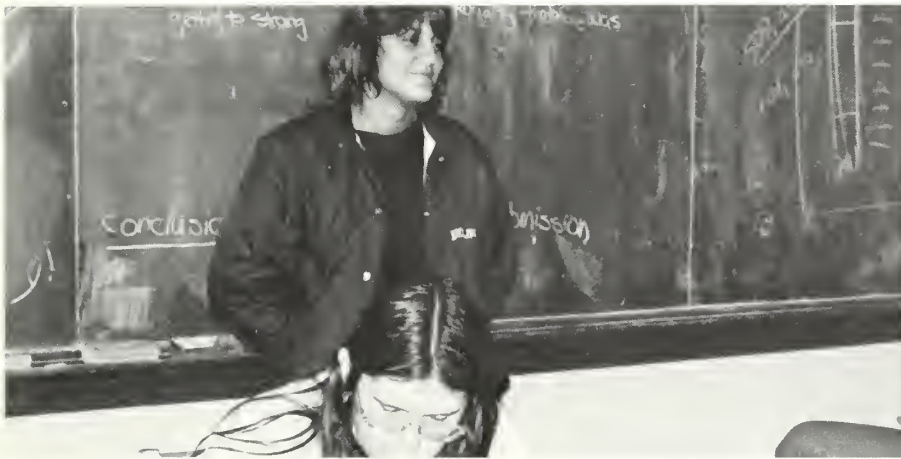

You've got so much to say, say what you mean
 Mean what you think, and think anything
 Oh why, why must you waste your life away
 You've got to live for today, then let it go

Cat Stevens

And the Colorado Rocky Mountain High
 I've seen it raining fire in the sky
 I know he'd poorer man if he never saw and eagle fly
 Rocky Mountain High

John Denver

But there never seems to be enough time
To do the things you want to do
Once you find them
I've looked around enough to know
That you're the one I want to go Through time with.

Eulogy For the Living

In a world of uncertainty
And knowledge unknown,
Where even in a multitude
A Man stands alone,
Irony is destiny and
Time is an infinity.
Pilgrim man in need of faith
Creates his own divinity
To lessen the burden of reality
And assure eternal purity.
His worship and his rituals
Are rewarded with security.
A special pattern drawn by time
And colored in by fate
Makes that which was too soon
Now that which is too late;
The man whose mind is rancid
Declares his sanity,
And the man with most potential
Is the first of all to die;
While history books immortalize
The dessicated men
Who little deserve glory,
Who thought their land a fen.
In a world of uncertainty
And of future unknown
It is each good man's duty
To accept life as his own.

— Linda Marks

Paul

I am not immortal
It is not only old people who die
He is not some kid
You read about in newsprint
Back page of the obituaries
Who died
In an unreal comic strip
A macabre cartoon
He is real
I talked to him
He has died

We still say his name
In the present tense
As if his graduation
Picture was still going
To be in the year book
I deny and Deny and deny
For if he can die
What about me

He is not some kid
From another town
With an unpronounceable name

He is in my mind
And I can't see him
Not breathing
Not walking
Not crying
Not living
He is my age

It is a surrealistic painting
In a nightmare
And I will wake up
Sip my cup of water
And awaken in the morning
At six a.m.
And go to school
And he'll be in the hall
Not a friend
But a fixture of my immortality
And apathy

But I am not immortal
It is not only old people who die
I am real
He is real
But he died
